

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

PRESENTATION TO PRESIDENT M. J. FITZGIBBONS.

Was Honored by His Associates in St. Brenden Council, Young Men's Institute—Remains of the Late Alvin L. Evans Are Expected to Arrive from Camp Alger Today. Young People's Baptist Union Entertained Last Night—Some Notes of a Minor Nature.

Members of St. Brenden council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, did honor to their president, M. J. Fitzgibbons, last evening. The affair was in honor of President Fitzgibbons' selection for grand treasurer of the aggregation of councils of the Pennsylvania jurisdiction at the recent convention held at Altoona Aug. 16-18.

The rooms were nicely decorated, and after cigars were passed, an entertaining program was carried out. Timothy A. McCoy acted as chairman and E. Hurst was accompanist. Remarks were made by Joseph Evans, Marquette council; T. A. Donohue and J. E. O'Malley, Columbus council; John Roche, Phil H. Sheridan, council; George Clarke, Clarke Brothers; John Kane, of Ohio; James Kelly, of Avoca; and James Brown, Peter Mullaney and Patrolman Patrick McManis, of St. Brenden council. Solos were sung by M. Sullivan, E. Walsh, John Shaughnessy, Thomas Maguire and William Vanston. E. Hurst and J. P. Kelly played several piano solos. A recitation by W. Gilroy and a declamation by Thomas Larkin concluded this part of the exercises.

In behalf of the council, Rev. A. T. Broderick presented Treasurer Fitzgibbons with a beautiful silver mounted set of ink wells and a pearl handled gold pen. The recipient responded in accepting the gift in a happy manner. On top of the cups of each well is the inscription "Presented to M. J. Fitzgibbons, September, 1898, by members of St. Brenden council, No. 243, Y. M. I."

SOCIETY GIVES A RECEPTION.

Misses Edna Lewis, Martha Hughes and Jessie Davies were tendered a farewell reception last evening at the First Welsh Baptist church by their fellow-members of the Young People's Baptist union of the church. The young ladies will leave this week to resume their studies at Bloomsburg State Normal school.

It was an exceedingly pleasant affair, a short entertainment being carried out, James R. Hughes acting as chairman. Solos were sung by Miss Eliza Lewis, John Evans and William Hughes. Chairman Hughes delivered a short address apropos of the affair and during the course of his remarks touched upon the phases of attendance at outside schools. Later, refreshments were served. The committee of arrangements comprised William Evans, the Misses Martha Hughes, Bertha Kelly and Sarah Jones and David James.

REMAINS TO BE BROUGHT HOME.

Word was received here yesterday that the remains of the late Alvin L.

Evans, private in Company C, who died at Camp Alger, Monday night, from typhoid fever, will be sent home for interment. Private Harry Hall, of Company C, and a friend of the dead soldier, was detailed to accompany the remains. It is expected that they will arrive some time this evening. The funeral will be held from the residence, 322 Eynon street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Soldiers home on furlough are invited to attend. Interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

POPULAR DRUG CLERK MARRIED.

Myron G. Evans, of Jenkins' Pharmacy on South Main avenue, was lately married at Kingston Saturday evening September 3, while on his vacation. The bride, Miss Jennie La James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel James, of 201 North Fillmore avenue, is a well known and popular young lady on this side. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Evans, an uncle of Mr. Evans, Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., of Kingston, officiated and the couple were unattended. The immediate relatives and a few friends were present and a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Evans are at present residing with the bride's parents.

MISS PHILLIPS ENTERTAINS.

A happy party of friends were entertained Tuesday evening by Miss Mabel Phillips at her residence on Mullen street. Various diversions were enjoyed and a exceedingly pleasant evening spent. George Ives, a soldier laid home on a furlough, related some interesting stories of camp life.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The alarm of fire sent in from box 78 yesterday afternoon about one o'clock was occasioned by a bed tick taking fire in the house of Michael Dougherty on Thompson street. The damage was slight. The Liberty hose cart was badly wrecked by coming in contact with a telephone pole on North Main avenue while the company was responding to the alarm.

Michael Morgan, of Henry Street, Kane, employed at Townsend's blacksmith shop on North Main avenue, were held in $500 bail each yesterday morning by Alderman Roberts on charges of larceny and malicious mischief preferred by Dr. P. Z. Boyer.

On the charges of selling liquor without a license Martin Gannon was arraigned at the instance of John Shea before Alderman Roberts last night. The prosecutor swore that he secured intoxicating beverages from Gannon and paid for them. Bail was furnished in the sum of $500. After the hearing Gannon turned the tables and had Shea arrested for malicious mischief. The information stated that he threw stones at Gannon's barn. Three hundred bail was furnished.

Patrick Dougherty, of Charles street, was united in marriage to Miss Anna Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, of Marvane avenue, yesterday afternoon at the Holy Rosary church. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. J. O'Connell. There was a large number of friends and relatives present at the ceremony. A reception was held in the home of the bride last evening which was largely attended.

Many beautiful wedding presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. They will reside on Marvane avenue on their return from a wedding trip to New York city. Edward Hatton who died at the Lackawanna hospital of dropsy was buried yesterday in Catholic cemetery. Services were held at the Holy Rosary church at 2:30, Rev. F. J. Lynn officiating. non was on his way out of the mines when he was struck with a loaded trip of cars. He was hurled against the rib with crushing force. Fellow workmen picked him up and conveyed him to the surface from where he was conveyed to his home. His injuries are normal. Gannon was engaged as a driver.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Funeral of Mrs. G. A. Mann attended by a Large Concourse of Her Friends—Other Items.

The remains of Mrs. G. A. Mann, formerly Miss Minnie Demuth, were interred in the family plot at St. Mary's German Catholic cemetery yesterday. During the early hours of the morning young women en route to factories, and men on their way to the mines and shops, stopped at the family home, 322 Pittston avenue, to take a farewell look on the features of the beloved young woman.

Long before the hour arranged for the moving of the cortege, the home and yard was crowded with relatives, friends and associates who came to pay the last mark of respect for the life of their departed friend. In the front parlor the remains reposed in a handsome casket, banked with beautiful floral pieces. The dress worn by Mrs. Mann at her marriage, two weeks ago, was placed on her yesterday. At 9 o'clock the casket was closed and the procession moved to St. Mary's Catholic church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Peter Christ, assisted by the complete choir of the church. The mass over, Father Christ delivered a touching eulogy. Several times during his remarks the reverend speaker was so filled with emotion that it was feared he would burst into tears. Feelingly he reviewed the life of the deceased from the day he administered the sacrament of baptism to her until the close of her well-spent career. Father Christ said that her untiring devotion to her religion, to her parents, and to charity won for her a life of everlasting bliss in the realms of her Maker and Redeemer. Addressing himself to Mrs. Demuth, Christ told her the occasion was not one of sorrow. She should rejoice, happy in the knowledge that the child entrusted to her by God was faithful and constant in her discharge of her duties as a daughter and a Christian.

As the remains were being borne from the church a double quartette, composed of Professor Schmidt, Gus Scholtz, Gus Beyer, John Lentz, Nathan Jacobs, William Heinz, Anton Fisch, John Stoebner and Theodore Lewert, sang a selection. At the grave the quartette again sang.

The pall-bearers were Andrew Best, who was groomsmen at the wedding; Charles Rosar, Henry Rosar, Charles Rosar. The flower-bearers were Joseph Radel, Emil Herberster, Joseph Rempe, Edward Rader, George Reif, Frank Kros, Matt Schellar and John Langsdorf.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The funeral of Mr. Elizabeth Mauts took place from her late residence, 1318 Pittston avenue, yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the Pittston avenue cemetery. Rev. Mr. Nordt officiated. Many floral designs were sent by sympathizing friends. The casket in which the deceased was held was evidenced by the large attendance at the obsequies. The pall-bearers were Conrad Bellessemer, James Elkus, Philip Kline, Joseph Roberts, Joseph Short and David Turner. The flower-bearers were George Neher, Henry Long, Andrew Heen and Adam Neuls.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klee and daughter, Miss Lena, returned yesterday from a five months' stay in Germany. Mrs. Klee and her son, Harry Berg, hauser will be married tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect, on Alder street.

Dr. Reeser will leave today for Easton on a professional visit.

MUST SUBMIT NEW REASONS. Judge Woodward's Suggestion in the Jennings Case. The application of the plaintiff in the case of John G. Jennings against the Lehigh Valley railroad company for a change of venue was heard yesterday morning at Wilkes-Barre before Hon. Stanley Woodward. Mr. Cornelius Smith appeared for his client, Mr. Jennings, and Mr. Warren represented the defendant. The petition of the plaintiff charging our judges with a conspiracy to defeat him in his action against the company was presented to the answer of the defendant, denying all of these allegations. Considerable argument was indulged in by counsel on both sides. Judge Woodward asked Mr. Smith if he expected him to sit in judgment upon the character of the judges of Lackawanna, or if he thought there ought to be a change of the place of trial of this case because he, Mr. Smith, had been abusing our judges and he said that he doubted his jurisdiction in the case.

After considerable discussion he said that if Mr. Smith were to withdraw the petition alleging misconduct on the part of our judges, he would present another one, which did not in any way reflect upon the judges, but simply ask for a change of the place of trial on the ground of local prejudice or some general allegations of that sort and if the matter was agreed to by counsel on the other side, he would then feel more like considering the application favorably. Mr. Smith finally agreed to withdraw the present charges in the case and present a new petition in accordance with the suggestion of Judge Woodward, and the matter went over until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Our Annual Exhibit OF Autumn Dress Fabrics

Opens on Tuesday, Sept. 6th, and Continues During the Balance of the Week.

No event of the entire year is surrounded with so much genuine interest as the first view of a coming season Dress Goods stock, and of course, the interest is enhanced according to the variety and extent of the display. That's why Globe Warehouse "Openings" always attract the fashionable element for miles around, and hold a recognized place above all similar events in North Eastern Pennsylvania.

A Word on Weaves and Shades

Common sense is the leading characteristic in the textile world this season. Generally speaking weaves are plain, and the colorings strictly in keeping with the more sombre days to come. True, there are extreme novelties for those who care for them, and a few striking effects in imported cloths, but the prevailing tendency is decidedly in favor of plain good fabrics, a quiet indistinct mixtures which are much better adapted to the latest productions of the worlds leading modistes than any thing else could be.

The New Materials Shown Include

Pelis Suitings, extra a superior covert Kammazan cloths, Two tone White Cords, exquisite Poplins, M-zovitae Suitings, English Broadcloths, French Whip Cords Banook brown mixtures, Lansdownes, Plain Serges, Henriettas, and the entire line of staples in new color effects.

Fancy Weaves Are Also Numerous

but are impossible of description here, while the assortment of checks and stripe effects, Novelty Plaids, etc. etc. leaves nothing to be desired.

During This Opening Exhibit

all visitors are welcome. We consider the present week as looking time and nothing more.
